Resolution 2016-13
REQUEST FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINION

BE IT RESOLVED by the Town Council of the Town of Snead in the State of Alabama, as follows:

QUESTION; Can a Mayor use the Town Police Department Officers while the Police are being paid by the Town to escort funeral processions; when the Mayor owns and operates the only Funeral Parlor in town as his fulltime profession.

WHEREAS, a question has been brought before the Snead Town Council on a Mayor using the Town Police Department officers while being paid by the Town to escort funeral processions; and

WHEREAS, we are unable to find prior rulings on this same matter;

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved that the Town Council for the Town of Snead, Alabama as follows:

1. The Snead Town Council does hereby request a ruling from the State of Alabama's Office of the Attorney General on the question regarding the use of the Town Police in an attempt to clarify the matter to the residents of the Town of Snead.

IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED BY THE TOWN COUNCIL OF THE TOWN OF SNEAD, ALABAMA, that this resolution shall become effective immediately on its passage.

ADOPTED AND APPROVED THIS THE 12th DAY OF SEPTEMBER, 2016.
